

Prof Martin Biddle CBE, FBA, FSA

will give a Lecture at Hampshire Record Office* on 21 July at 6.30 pm, entitled

Winchester's late Saxon connections with the Danish Royal House

Martin will talk about the Scandinavian presence and influence in Winchester, especially in the time of Cnut, as evidenced through the burials, finds, and architectural decoration of Old Minster.

Book in advance by email at admin@winchesterstudies.org.uk

Tickets are £7, Free for Friends of Winchester Studies

The exhibition advertised overleaf may be viewed before the lecture, from 5.30 pm to 6.30 pm, and afterwards until 8 pm.

If you are not yet a Friend, and would like more information about joining, see

[https://www.winchesterstudies.org.uk/
support-us/#becomefriends](https://www.winchesterstudies.org.uk/support-us/#becomefriends)

The 'Sigmund' stone was part of a larger carved scene which seems to represent an episode from the 'Saga of the Volsungs', perhaps celebrating the shared genealogy of the kings of England and Denmark. Drawing by Francis Rankine. ©Winchester Excavations Committee

For more information about our work or if you have any questions about any of the items in this flyer, please contact: admin@winchesterstudies.org.uk or call 07743 953504

* Hampshire Archives and Local Studies, Sussex Street, Winchester, SO23 8TH